

Dear Distributors,

We are very pleased to announce the acquisition of the medical activity of ECM by Quantel Medical, France.

Quantel Medical, a fully owned subsidiary of Lumibird group, is specialized in the development, manufacturing and commercialization of ultrasound and laser systems dedicated to ophthalmology.

With more than 12,000 ultrasound units sold in more than 110 countries during the past 25 years, Quantel Medical is the world leader in ophthalmic ultrasound and has brought several first to market technological innovations.

From July 25th, the whole medical activity of ECM will be transferred to Quantel Medical. A copy of the official press release is attached to this announcement.

Please note that the naming of the Exapad Mini and Exapad products will now be EvoTouch and EvoTouch+.

Any questions in relation with sales and after-sales can be made directly to Quantel Medical at:

Phone: +33 473 745 747

Email: evotouch@quantel-medical.fr

In the coming weeks, you will be contacted by Quantel Medical to further discuss about future collaboration.

We are confident that this acquisition will lead to a new development phase in the point of care and musculoskeletal markets and any other future opportunities.

We also want to thank you for the confidence you have shown to ECM and you will show to Quantel Medical.

In the meantime, should you have any questions, please feel free to contact us.

Yours sincerely,
